New / Pre-Owned / Used Book Condition

New

Is self-explanatory. It means that the book is in the state that it should have been in when it left the publisher. The is the equivalent of Mint condition in numismatics.

Pre-Owned Like New

As New but allowing for the normal effects of time on an unused book that has been protected. A Pre-Owned Like New book shows no damage.

Pre-Owned Good

Book is intact with or without its dust jacket on, but it may have easier-to-notice flaws. A dog-ear, or bent corner, small mark on pages, rubbing or fading from sun on the dust jacket. There might be cracks on the spine, some markings or writing inside. Pages may be yellow or tanned. The price from the inside flap may be clipped with scissors. The dust jacket may be moderately chipped, torn and rubbed. A paperback book may have cover creases. Library stamps may be present in the book, but is in perfect readable condition. Books that have been placed on sale and have a tell-tale remainder mark. The book may look somewhat shelfworn.

Rare Books, Signed Books, Uncorrected Proofs & Older First Editions

This grade is only considered by serious collectors for books that are in demand but rarely found in better condition than Good. The dust jacket will have chips, tears...perhaps even stains. The book will have problems ranging from stains, tears and loose binding to extensive writing on the pages. A book graded Good may be just fine for a reading copy, but, unless it fits in the "rare" category, its selling price will be low. Spines, covers may be damaged. May have significant wear and tear due to the age of the book.

"Every book listed on the site is in stock with us. The condition of most our used books is Very Good. Ex-Library and Book club Books may have library stamps." REFER TO TERMS FOR COMPLETE USED CONDITIONS
